

LUBBOCK VEIN SPECIALISTS WEBSITE UNVEILED

Lubbock Vein Specialists website, unveiled at its Lubbock offices now goes live on www.lubbockveinspecialists.com.

June 18th 2009: Lubbock Vein Specialists today announces the online presentation of its website, designed by the acclaimed creative team of Paramount/MD. The scale of the design, which was unveiled at its Lubbock offices on 18th June 2009, can be viewed along with a wealth of healthcare content and interviews performed by President and C.E.O. of Paramount/MD Victor Sirgado now on <http://www.lubbockveinspecialists.com/videos.html>

The LVS site is entirely devoted to the services and knowledge of Vein disease treatment.

The center provides state-of-the-art environment for patients to receive professional care and information pertaining to their services.

Dr. Sandra Dickerson, Director of Lubbock Vein Specialists commented: "Paramount/MD's creative direction was spot-on to our request. We are not only very happy with the final product but enjoyed working with them throughout the development process."

Victor Sirgado commented: "We have developed a new style of design for the medical industry. We're bridging post modern design with award winning photography making the user experience not only informative but visually stimulating."
